

FIAT600 BIO

Of the many music bands that have occupied the musician Miguel Conejeros over the past two decades Fiat600. A project originated in Barcelona, a city where the Chilean moved in 2001. The electronic self-management of this proposal is the most profound musical mark of a musician in constant evolution and search for new musical directions.

During his first stint as a musician, founded the legendary punk band Pinochet Boys as a form of dissent during Pinochet dictatorship and enrolling his name among the pioneers of a new approach to experiencing music, rock and pop in Chile and Latin America. Today Miguel Conejeros is an established composer always interested in developing a unique combination of sound from the investigation of technical resources (samplers, noises, polyrhythms, sequences, field recordings, etc...) and whatever can bring to his music a personal standpoint.

Nowadays Miguel deals with Fiat600 live performances in clubs worldwide and also bring his music to the contemporary art field with, sound installations and his participation in various music festivals such as Sonar, Periferias, LEM, Algorythm, Versus Electronics, among others. Fiat600 is currently active as a producer and DJ, working with Netlabels, Eponidos and Pueblo Nuevo, as well as with the Nice Cat Records label where he did a remix for a recent Ricardo Villalobos release.
